VII. REPLACEMENT OF DAMAGED UNIFORM EQUIPMENT AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

A. Department sanctioned uniform equipment and personal effects may be replaced or reimbursed by the department when rendered unserviceable due to damage or loss incurred in the line of duty.

2. "Damage or loss incurred in the line of duty" means damage or loss that occurred while the member was executing a proper and official duty. This definition excludes damage or loss due to carelessness, poor judgment, or negligence.
B. Damage to Uniform Equipment

Requests for uniform replacement shall be documented on a department memorandum and forwarded to Material Management through the member’s chain of command.

   b. Requests for reimbursement shall be documented on a department memorandum and forwarded via chain of command.

2. In cases where the value of a lost or damaged article has appreciated, the department shall not provide reimbursement greater than the initial cost unless such appreciated value can be justified.
